

The J. David Gladstone Institutes
Scholarship Application

In partnership with the J. David Gladstone Institutes, the National Student Leadership Conference will award students from the Bay area with a scholarship to attend the National Student Leadership Conference on Medicine & Health Care.

National Student Leadership Conference:

The National Student Leadership Conference (NSLC) is a non-partisan educational organization that offers curriculum-based leadership development programs for outstanding high school students.

The J. David Gladstone Institutes:

Gladstone is an independent, nonprofit organization affiliated with UC - San Francisco. Their mission is to improve the quality of life of all people by helping to contain and combat some of the most devastating illnesses of our time, including cardiovascular disease, HIV and Alzheimer's disease.

1. Steps to complete the Scholarship Application process by _____:

- a. Complete the Enrollment Application provided in the Scholarship Packet
- b. Complete the Essay Questions listed below
- c. Submit the Recommendation Form provided in the Scholarship Packet

2. Essay Questions are required to complete the Scholarship Application process (attach additional sheets if necessary):

- a. Please list your extracurricular activities, highlighting any leadership roles you have held.

- b. How would you benefit from attending the National Student Leadership Conference?

- c. Please describe your future plans in medicine or medical research.
